

16 REVISION How big? How often? How much? How many?

Put these words in order in their groups.

- | 1   | 2   | 3   | 4   |
|---|---|---|---|
| large smallhuge quite big                                       | sometimes oftennever always                                       | not very quiteextremely very                                | a few people nobodyeverybody many people                                |
| 1 small ————— quite big ————— large ————— huge | 2 never ————— sometimes ————— often ————— always | 3 not very ————— quite ————— very ————— extremely | 4 nobody ————— a few people ————— many people ————— everybody |

17 REVISION Words that go together in phrases

a) Write the words that go with each verb.

home • lunch • crazy • to sleep • a message • by bus • an idea • it easy • away • fun • notes • a photo • shopping • a party • a sore leg • for it! • wrong • risks • for a walk • your temperature • every right to • out • a good day • part in • to bed • swimming

- 1 GO ... home / crazy / to sleep / by bus / away / shopping / for it! / wrong / for a walk / out / to bed / swimming
- 2 TAKE ... a message / it easy / notes / a photo / risks / your temperature / part in
- 3 HAVE ... lunch / an idea / fun / a party / a sore leg / every right to / a good day

b) Challenge: Write two sentences with phrases from a). How many can you put in?

Example: I've decided to go for it and take part in a 15 km race for charity. I'm sure I'll have a good day — I just hope I don't have sore legs after the race!